

The Kings Cross Redevelopment Story

Looking back at the how and why of a London mega urban redevelopment project

Speaker: Prof. Peter Bishop

Bartlett School of Architecture, University College London and sometime Chief Planner, London Borough of Camden

Peter Bishop was a Director of Planning in central London and worked on major development projects including Kings Cross. In 2007 he set up Design for London, the Mayor's architecture and design studio and was then deputy CEO of the London Development Agency where he worked on the London Olympics and the regeneration of east London. Since 2011 he has been a director at Allies and Morrison and Professor of Urban Design at The Bartlett School of Architecture. He has been an advisor to the Mayor of Bucharest and is an advisor to the City of Zhuhai. His book on temporary urbanism, "The Temporary City" was published in 2012.
